funds proposal: 400+1 consultation

[Thread Author] · Private · Seen by 55

Hi everyone!

I would like to request $200 from the fund for a consultation with 400+1 - feel free to read more via the thread I created specifically about/for this possible training: <https://www.loomio.org/d/7FI0Sfsx/training-with-400-1-and-beyond>. Suggestions for alternative amt of compensation are welcome, too. $200 is the amount suggested by [Vendor #1] and [Vendor #2], co-founders of 400+1.

thanks for keeping this rolling! more meeting date options (after 4/30) would be nice to give all members more advance notice to attend, if possible

Needing more engagement here & have extended both the meeting poll & funds proposal by another 24 hours! Please participate if you're able!

@[\[Member #1\]](#), I'm totally open to contacting 400+1 for more dates/available meeting day options, if you and/or other members feel strongly about this (I would understand & want to make the meeting accessible) -- for context: sometimes it takes a week+ to get a response from them, and their availability seems to shift from week to week, so when I got these dates from [\[Vendor #1\]](#) my first impulse was to act quickly & try to secure a time just to minimize the back-and-forth email waiting game - and I realize this may be unnecessarily rushing the process! Thank you for the ask :) Let's check back on this when we have more engagement on the funds proposal, and we can go from there?

Update: I have reached back to [Vendor #1] and have asked for more date options re our consultation so that all of us may have more time to vote and/or attend! My ask was that they give us dates that are at least 2 weeks away from their next response, if possible. I will keep the funds proposal open for more participation, but have deleted the meeting poll for now. Thank you!

Trying this again! [Vendor #1] got back to me - anytime the week of the 17th works for them, and no time constraints were given. Comment or add your availability, time wise, if it varies?

I'm unavailable. We do need at least 21 votes, @[Thread Author].

[Member #1] · Mon 10 May 2021 11:46AM

@[Thread Author] I'm not sure whether 17 votes constitutes a quorum.. need to check back on the handbook.. But looks like 5/22 at 1pm EST worked best for folks?

[Thread Author] · Mon 10 May 2021 12:52PM

I reopened the funds proposal! We need at least 21 votes (thank you @[Group Admin]!)

+ I believe 5/22 at 3pm (15:00) EST is the outcome, unless we hear back from other members before the end of the day

2 votes away from approval <3

This proposal has been approved! <3 @[Thread Author], can you check in with them and ask their PayPal information so we can transfer the $200?

Thanks so much,
